

'Till Death do us Part

AN UNDEAD
MUSICAL LOVE STORY

Audition Notice

Here is your chance to audition for a brand new musical, brought to you by Aftershock Entertainment.

'Till Death do us Part is a musically romantic comedy with a twist. It starts with the death of the main character, Hank Atkinson. The story follows Hanks' adventures as a zombie, trying to win back his lost love, who moved on when he died. Surrounded by a cast of colorful characters, the shows twist and turns and provides non-stop laughter and entertainment.

Book by Joshua Kurtz and Victoria Stanton

Music and lyrics by Joshua Kurtz, with orchestration by Dominic Fera.

Audition Dates: May 28 & 29 beginning at 6:00 PM

Location: Turnersville, NJ - call for specifics.

- Please prepare: Between 16 and 32 bars of any song from a musical. A track would be preferred (I-pod or CD), but A Capella is allowed. There will not be anyone there to play music, so do NOT bring piano sheet music!
- A monologue, between thirty seconds and two minutes in length. Please have this memorized! If you should choose not to perform a monologue, you are still eligible to be in the show, but likely only the ensemble. We encourage everyone to try!
- Wear clothes/shoes you can move in, because there will be a dance audition.
- If you can play the guitar, please bring anything you will need to show off for a little bit! If you can beat box, please be prepared to drop us a fly beat! If you have any other bizarre or special talents, we may want to see them too- or at least know about them.

Video auditions will also be accepted (please see web site).

Call Back date: June 2nd

Show dates will be in mid-August with South Jersey Venue to be Announced
